“First Night[®] Morris County provides an affordable and community-focused experience that fosters the public’s appreciation of visual and performing arts with a year-round impact.”

For over 33 years, First Night Morris County has been an integral part of the New Jersey landscape. As we prepare for our 34th year, we are stronger than ever. We are proud to be New Jersey’s largest First Night and an organization of unparalleled professionalism set for a promising future.

Historically on New Year’s Eve, Morristown has become a stage with more than 70 performances by over 200 artists in 20 venues. Thousands of friends, families, and neighbors join together to share in the excitement. Our alcohol-free and substance-free performing arts event has been brought to life by our performers, many of whom are internationally renowned and offer our attendees a one of a kind opportunity to become a part of our interactive event. Our annual event is the culmination of our year-round efforts and highlights the impact we make.

This New Year’s Eve, we will bring together thousands through an in-person and virtual program featuring more than 70 performances, an independent film festival featuring 30+ films, over 200 artists, interactive segments and more in an alcohol-free and substance-free performing arts events.

As a self-funded and volunteer-based 501(c)(3) charitable organization, we offer a unique opportunity for our supporters to connect with their marketplace throughout the year.

Our attendees traditionally come from a broad cross-section of our diverse population ranging from families, seniors, professionals, singles, and students.
